John,

We think the ground for the change of lawyers for HCLOM is self-evident.

This is to advise that we will not be filing the motion Amelia sent around earlier (which she sent as a courtesy as I told you we would circulate). Hope to visit soon.

Thank you, Amelia.

I honestly don't know what to make of all of this—including Mr. Elms suddenly representing HCLOM rather than Ms. Deitsch Perez—but please confirm that neither HMIT nor HCLOM is making any request of Highland at this time.

Assuming that to be the case, Highland will wait to see what gets filed, if anything, and otherwise reserves all of its rights at law and in equity.

Regards,

John

Subject: DRAFT Motion to Reconsider HCLOM Stipulated Order

Good afternoon,

Per Louis, we said that we would circulate the attached draft before filing. We think our deadline is today but we are actively working with Mr. Elms who has been recently retained by HCLOM to resolve without necessity of litigating. But in case we do not reach a resolution this evening and as we said we would circulate a draft prior to filing, we wanted to get this draft to you.

thanks,

Amelia
